Arlington International
Horse Racing’s Most Beautiful Track

Mitsuwa Marketplace
A Taste of Japan That’s Close to Home

DISCOVERARLINGTON.COM
Dear Guest,

I’d like to take a moment and welcome you to Arlington Heights! We greatly appreciate you choosing the City of Good Neighbors. With 76,000 residents and 3,000+ businesses, Arlington Heights is one of the largest communities, both residential and commercial, in the entire Chicago area. Now that you’re here, we invite you to escape your room and join us at one of our countless dining, shopping, and entertainment options.

The heart of the community lies within our Downtown, just a couple short miles (less than a 10-minute drive) from where you’re staying. In this award-winning mixed-use district, you’ll find more than 30 places to eat – from elegant white tablecloths to casual eateries, from classic American fare to enticing ethnic cuisine, from modern interiors to family-friendly al fresco dining. There are also plenty of boutique shopping opportunities as well as incredible entertainment experiences such as a live show at the Metropolis Performing Arts Centre.

Please consider visiting our north side and south side districts as well. These feature an array of shopping options including numerous national retailers, countless additional restaurants including casual and sit-down eateries, and Mitsuwa Marketplace, which serves as the largest Japanese grocery and shopping center in the Midwest. Also, we would be honored to have you join us for one of the many unique events that run in our community throughout the year.

But don’t just take my word for it. Please take another minute to look through this guide that features 24 pages of images, descriptions, and contact information to give you a sample of what our incredible community has to offer. You, your friends, and your family are always welcome in Arlington Heights. We appreciate your visit and your patronage to our wonderful businesses. We hope you come to visit again soon!

Sincerely,

Thomas W. Hayes
Mayor

First opened in 1927, Arlington International has been called “America’s most beautiful racetrack.” And it’s easy to see why. The immaculate grounds are lushly landscaped with manicured lawns, flower displays and stands of trees. The track’s infield is graced with majestic weeping willows and a large, pristine blue pond.

An impressive, six-story grandstand overlooks the famed one-mile and one-eighth oval track, which can seat 50,000 cheering fans. Tickets are very affordable. And if you buy your tickets in advance, you’ll also enjoy discounts.

If you like your horses close up, stroll to the paddock area where the steeds are walked just before each race. By the way, the extensive stables on the backstretch can shelter over 2,000 horses.

Not sure how to bet? Take a free ‘Betting 101’ class before the first race and learn the basics of wagering.

One of the choices you’ll make is where to sit. Lawn seating and benches are free. The options go up from there: Standard Box seating, Executive Boxes, and Luxe Boxes. Where you sit (and dine) determines how you’ll dress. Casual clothes are fine for the Pavilion, while fancy dress is required at the elegant Governor’s Room.

Food at Arlington International is exceptional, and there are plenty of options: from burgers, BBQ, carved meats and more at the first-floor food court, to the refined pub fare of the Cowboy Grill, to the elegant dining experience of The Million Room.

You can also bring in your own food and non-alcoholic beverages. Smaller bags and coolers enter free. Larger ones require a cooler pass. Be sure to reserve a picnic table for your family or group, and enjoy the day!

Arlington International is also a destination for the entire family. You’ll find plenty of exciting events for every age. The highlight of the season is the world-famous Arlington Million (America’s first ever million-dollar Thoroughbred race) in early August. It’s an international turf showcase of champion racehorses. The fashions and pageantry are sights to behold. Be sure to reserve your spot ahead of time.

Horse racing isn’t the only pastime that draws visitors. Arlington International is also a destination for the entire family. You’ll find plenty of exciting events for every age. The highlight of the season is the world-famous Arlington Million (America’s first ever million-dollar Thoroughbred race) in early August. It’s an international turf showcase of champion racehorses. The experience at Arlington is one of the best in the business. The track is set amidst 300 acres of green, with the Chicago skyline in the background. The track is home to the world-famous Arlington Million, which is one of the most prestigious races in America.

The Arlington Million is a race that has been held every year since 1974. It is a $1 million dollar race for three-year-olds and up. The Arlington Million is considered one of the most prestigious races in America because it is a race for the best horses in the country.

Arlington International is a true family destination. There are plenty of things to do for the whole family. If you’re a horse racing enthusiast, you’ll love the races. If you’re not, you’ll still enjoy the atmosphere. The Arlington Million is a race that is not to be missed. It is truly a world-class event.
MITSUWA MARKETPLACE

Get ready to immerse yourself in the exhilarating aromas, sights and flavors of Japan. Welcome to Mitsuwa Marketplace – the Midwest’s largest Japanese market. With its vast selection of high-quality foods and beverages, food court, specialty shops and cultural events, it’s easy to see why Mitsuwa draws people from across Illinois and neighboring states.

It’s the perfect adventure for foodies, families and fans of Japanese culture. Start with a visit to Mitsuwa’s supermarket. Stroll down the bustling aisles as Japanese pop songs play overhead, and you might feel you’re in Tokyo or Osaka. Watch as skilled workers behind the fish counter carve precise strips of glistening yellowtail and mackerel for sashimi. Seafood is central to Japanese cuisine, and Mitsuwa stocks a remarkable assortment – much of it flown in fresh from Japan.

Stop by the meat department with its artisanal pork, chicken and beef offerings, and you’ll find one of Japan’s culinary gems, rarely found at retail – the richly marbled, meltiningly tender Wagyu beef.

The Japanese emphasis on eating foods at the peak of their seasonal freshness means there will be a constantly rotating assortment of fresh-from-the-farm fruits and vegetables in Mitsuwa’s colorful produce section, including exotics like wintry yuzu citrus, spring’s Sakura cherry blossoms and summery Okayama peaches.

Ready to delve into the world of sake? Mitsuwa’s cozy liquor store features 150 labels of this fragrant rice wine. You’ll also find an impressive selection of Japanese beers for your fridge or picnic cooler.

Mitsuwa is more than an extraordinary supermarket. Many visitors come just to dine at its famed food court, where 15 shops and stands serve up some of Chicagoland’s best Japanese, Korean and Chinese dishes.

Treat yourself to a tray of fresh sushi or a traditional bento box lunch of broiled eel. The tempura here is outstanding, with fresh seafood, vegetables, and meats enrobed in a crisp, greaseless batter. Springy udon noodles, made fresh every day, accompany a variety of soups, like Kake and Kitsune. And the intensely flavored bowls of ramen are guaranteed to put a smile on your face. Want to shift culinary gears? Order from a Chinese menu. Or try some Korean street food, like Bibimbap – a savory bowl crowded with rice, sautéed vegetables, beef short ribs and fried egg.

Save room for dessert. There’s red bean cake, curry cake, green tea ice cream, and a mango black pearl smoothie the kids will love. Or dare to be different with a slice of decadent French mille crepe, whose 20 thin layers are each separated by pastry cream.

Another tasty way to explore Japan’s vibrant food culture at Mitsuwa is to attend one of the “gourmet fairs,” celebrating the unique regional foods of Japan – from the sweet hairy crab of Hokkaido to the celebrated fried chicken wings of Nagoya.

Be sure to visit some of the other shops near the food court. The Japan-based Kinokuniya bookstore has colorful displays of Japanese books, magazines and gifts. There’s a kids section with an impressive Pokemon collection. And check out the fantastic origami kits that allow you to build everything from paper pirate ships to boa constrictors. Searching for the perfect chopstick rests? You’ll find them at the housewares shop, along with an amazing selection of plates, bowls and kitchenware. There’s also a Shiseido makeup boutique, a video store with hard-to-find Japanese titles and a Japanese hair salon.

BON ODORI FESTIVAL
A thundering and dazzlingly choreographed Taiko drum performance is a highlight of the annual Japanese summer festival in mid-August hosted by Mitsuwa. Dine on Japanese delicacies. Enjoy dance performances, karate demonstrations, games and more.
If you’re looking for great entertainment for yourself or your family, put the Metropolis Performing Arts Centre high on your list. Located in Arlington Heights’ historic Downtown, Metropolis is a premier Chicagoland destination for professionally staged musicals, comedies, national touring musical acts, children and family shows and regular engagements with Chicago’s Second City. In fact, over 50,000 patrons visit Metropolis annually.

Take a seat in the sleek and intimate 329-seat theater space and enjoy great views. Every seat puts you close to the action. A lobby bar serves beer, wine and beverages, which you can bring into the theater to enjoy.

With over 400 performances of more than 40 different productions every year, you’ll have plenty to choose from. Broadway and Off-Broadway hit musicals are a popular draw. Past shows have included Spamalot, Rent, A Christmas Carol, Hair and Young Frankenstein. Top musical talent comes to Metropolis in the Live Music Series, featuring national and regional favorites in rock, folk, blues, country and classical – such as The Bacon Brothers, Joan Baez, Robert Cray, Los Lobos, BoDeans, and an annual summer appearance by young artists from Ravinia’s Steans Music Institute.

If you have young kids, they’re sure to love Metropolis’ Stories in Action! productions for young audiences, featuring engaging stagings of famous children’s tales, such as The Ugly Duckling and Cinderella. And for the holiday season, share the magic of a heartwarming tradition – the annual, family-friendly retelling of Charles Dickens’ A Christmas Carol. The Metropolis School of Performing Arts features 4 classrooms and 13 music studios and offers drama, music and dance group classes and private lessons for all ages – kids, teens, and adults. The school also provides opportunities for students to perform in front of audiences through its showcases and recital programs.

When you visit Metropolis, don’t forget there’s also plenty to enjoy when you’re in Downtown Arlington Heights. Stop in for a meal and drinks before or after the show at one of more than 20 great restaurants and pubs – from Mexican, Italian, Spanish and Thai cuisine to pizza and classic American favorites to an Irish pub, craft beer bar and more. They’re all within blocks of Metropolis.

Metropolis is easy to love and just as easy to get to. There’s plenty of free parking nearby, including a convenient parking garage behind the theater. And the Union Pacific Northwest Metra line, running from Chicago, is just two blocks away.

Be sure to visit the Metropolis website for a full list of current shows and times.
All events take place in Downtown Arlington Heights unless otherwise noted. For complete event information, visit discoverarlington.com.

Grab a quick bite or make it a night. Whether you’re looking for a handcrafted sandwich or craft beer, a lively pub or live entertainment, you’ll find it here.

Bite into the classic Italian Beef sandwich – tender and juicy with giardinera peppers at Johnnie’s Beef. And don’t forget to order a cup of their refreshing lemon or watermelon Italian ice. (Cash only.) Porky’s BBQ’s tender brisket and pulled pork sandwiches, topped with coleslaw, can’t be beat. Or try the Pig Sty Fries (topped with meat, smoked beans and cheese). Looking for a light takeout lunch Japanese style? Head over to Shakou for their panko-crusted shrimp burger on a pretzel bun or the sweet-savory salmon teriyaki bento box. You can’t go wrong with the slow-smoked sirloin tri-tip sandwich at Big Ange’s. Or go with one of their family-recipe meatball, sausage or eggplant sandwiches and a dish of homemade ice cream.

Peggy Kinnane’s Irish Restaurant & Pub features a deep selection of Irish whiskeys plus craft cocktails and a tantalizing menu featuring Emerald Isle classics like shepherd’s pie and an all-day Irish fry breakfast. The beef is freshly ground daily for the gourmet burgers at Cortland’s Garage. Order one with a signature cocktail, and enjoy the seasonal patio. You’ll find an amazing selection of close to 120 beers, ales and ciders at the Arlington Ale House, as well as live music, all on the spacious third floor of the Metropolis Performing Arts Centre. Catch the rustic lodge-house vibe at Rackhouse Kitchen and Tavern as you dig into the top-notch BBQ, which is smoked in-house. And don’t miss their signature moonshine cocktails.

The cozy Big Shot Piano Lounge features an upscale menu, expertly made cocktails and some of Chicagoland’s best musicians performing show tunes, contemporary pop and lots more. And you can even sing along.
Discover the bold flavors and unique atmosphere of the many restaurants, cafés and eateries in Arlington Heights!

Discover the bold flavors and unique atmosphere of the many restaurants, cafés and eateries in Arlington Heights!
Hungry? Choose your cuisine from nearly 40 dining options ranging from Mexican, Italian and Asian fusion to pizzerias, fast food, and sandwich and coffee shops. Mangia at Carlos & Carlos, Francesca’s Tavola and the trattoria-inspired Passero. La Tasca Tapas features small-plate Spanish specialties. Sushi takes the stage at Wildfish and Shaku. The five sisters who run the Bangkok Café cook up homestyle versions of Thai classics. You’ll find terrific Mexican food at Salsa 17 and Mago Grill and Cantina. If you’re a craft beer fan, enjoy a hearty IPA at the Arlington Ale House. Want your food fast? Bite into a red velvet cupcake from the 70-year-old Arlington Cake Box Bakery. Or order the tangy and rich smoked brisket sandwich at Porky’s BBQ. Bring out the artist in you at an evening of painting and wine at Bottle & Bottega. Feeling romantic? Take an evening stroll beneath the intoxicating glow of the Light Ceiling on Vail Avenue and Campbell Street. Step through our Village’s rich 180-year history at the Arlington Heights Historical Museum, housed in a beautiful Victorian home and a circa-1906 former soda pop factory. Arlington Heights has become a popular Chicagoland entertainment destination. The theater in the Metropolis Performing Arts Centre features musicals, concerts and plays. Enjoy great music from jazz to pop at Big Shot Piano Bar and Lounge. The gastropub restaurant Hey Nonny offers live music and a farm-to-table menu. And you can sip cocktails in your leather recliner as you watch the latest releases at Downtown’s CMX movie theater. Have shopping on your mind? You’ll find one-of-a-kind items, jewelry, gifts, clothing, artisan items and more at locally-owned Downtown shops and quaint boutiques, such as A La Mode Collections and Upstairs Boutique & Gift. And pick up some great Italian wines and appetizers at the Tuscan Market and Wine Shop.
